1. Addendum

- 1.1. It has come to our attention that there is an error in the Recommendations section of the published Cabinet report.
- 1.2. The report includes two recommendations. However, this is in error and indeed the two recommendations taken together are nonsensical.
- 1.3. When the report was drafted, the two recommendations were set out as being options for which the Leadership Co-ordinating Group (LCG) to consider and provide a preference. It appears that the LCG may not have specifically discussed which option they would prefer, as this discussion may not have been instigated by Officers at the meeting.
- 1.4. Unfortunately, and erroneously, rather than one of the recommendations being removed, they have both remained in the report.
- 1.5. Officers have discussed the recommendations with the Portfolio Holder for Place and have agreed that in considering the report, Cabinet should consider Recommendation 1 as deleted and treat Recommendation 2 as the only recommendation. The wording of this recommendation is as follows in bold:

That Cabinet agrees to the commencement of a six-week public consultation on an updated version of the adopted Statement of Community Involvement, and, subject to SCI not requiring significant amendments as a result of the consultation, delegated authority is given to the Head of Service for Place, Arts & Economy, in consultation with the Portfolio Holder for Place to subsequently make any necessary minor amendments and adopt the updated SCI.
