Details of usage:	Since 2000, The Millennium field has become the centre of village activity with many events taking place, hence the need for the car park to be re-laid and the container to be installed.
Details of Organisations equalities policies:	Baginton PC along with Baginton Events which has been established to organise events for villagers and to provide a green space for the use and enjoyment of all ages.
3 quotes provided for schemes in excess of £10,000:	Yes - 3 quotes for the work have been submitted.
Which of the Council's Corporate Priorities are met?:	Evidence
Engaging and strengthening Communities	The events that are organised require a large community effort to prepare, promote, set up and run. This brings families together on a regular basis and is rewarding to see the interaction taking place.
Promotion of Cultural Activities	There is an annual Proms concert with a 40 piece orchestra, professional singers and a firework finale that is held every year.
Reducing Obesity, particularly in children	Baginton Sporting Lions Football teams have been set up for training and currently have children ages 4 to 10 using the Millennium Field.
Planning Approval (if required)	WDC Planning has advised that planning permission is not required however as the field is within a Conservation Area any appearance or change must be sensitive and unobtrusive. The specification adopted will achieve this objective.
