1. Summary

- 1.1 This report sets out proposals by this Council to dedicate 4 open spaces in the District under the Centenary Fields initiative to commemorate those who lost their lives in World War I.

2. Recommendation

- 2.1 That the Executive formally name an open space, known locally as Tapping Way open space within the residential area of Chase Meadow, Aylesford ward, Warwick as RAF Centenary Park.
- 2.2 That the Executive agrees to submit an application to the Fields in Trust for the dedication of Abbey Fields Kenilworth, St. Nicholas Park Warwick, Pump Room Gardens Royal Leamington Spa and RAF Centenary Park (Tapping Way Open Space) Warwick as Centenary Fields.
- 2.3 If successful with the applications that the Executive agrees to dedicate each of these green spaces as Centenary Fields.
- 2.4 That the Executive agrees to delegate authority to the Head of Neighbourhood Services, in consultation Portfolio Holder for Neighbourhood Services, to agree and sign the terms of a Deed of Dedication to provide Centenary Field status to those green spaces.
- 2.5 That the Executive agrees to £2,000 of funding to be made available from the Community Project Reserve to support the costs of erecting plaques and any associated interpretation.

3. Reasons for the Recommendation

Recommendations 2.1, 2.2 and 2.3

- 3.1 Fields in Trust is a national charity that operates throughout the UK to safeguard recreational spaces. Their mission is to ensure that everyone young or old, able bodied or disabled and wherever they live should have access to free, local outdoor space for sport, play and recreation, advocating that these spaces are vital to building happy and healthy communities.
- 3.2 The Centenary Fields programme was launched in 2014 by Fields in Trust President HRH the Duke of Cambridge. It aims to protect at least one green space in every local authority area across England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland to commemorate the centenary of World War I. Safeguarding these sites will create a living UK wide legacy in commemoration of the sacrifice made by those who lost their lives in WWI.
- 3.3 Fields in Trust is working in partnership with the Royal British Legion to deliver the programme. This will commemorate this significant milestone in our history and create a tangible local legacy that will be valued by communities for generations to come.
- 3.4 The main benefits of taking part in the initiative are to:
- contribute to a UK initiative to commemorate those involved with World War I
 - raise awareness of both the initiative and the Council's commitment to providing for public access and recreation
 - raise the profile of the nominated sites

- 3.5 The initiative also aims to safeguard valued public spaces for the future. However, as most of these green spaces are already safeguarded through other means, this is not necessarily an additional benefit.
- 3.5 Each of the green spaces proposed have significant connections with World War I.

Abbey Fields, Kenilworth

There is a war memorial in form of obelisk which was unveiled in 1922. It commemorates those who died in WWI, WWII and the Korean War. It is located at the top of Abbey Fields near the junction of Abbey End and Abbey Hill.

St. Nicholas Park, Warwick

This has avenue of trees central to the park. At the base of some of the trees are small stone cairns on which there are plaques mounted commemorating various individuals from both world wars. More recently a new war memorial has been erected dedicated to those involved in World War I.

The Pump Room Gardens

Soldiers from across the country as far afield as Gateshead and Exeter came to Leamington Spa Pump Rooms to receive special treatment for their war wounds during WWI. The Turkish baths and radical radiant treatments were the main attraction. Approximately more than 7,000 treatments were given to injured soldiers at the Pump Rooms over the four years of WWI.

RAF Centenary Park (Tapping Way open space) in Warwick

This site has been discussed with The Fields in Trust and even though there is a less strong link with WWI there is a link with Royal Air Force Warwick. RAF Warwick was a former Royal Air Force relief landing ground and was opened on a large grass field called Tournament Field in December 1941. Due to the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the RAF the Fields in Trust have said they would consider an application for this site. This is a new open space which is about to be adopted by the Council from the developer Taylor Wimpey. Locally the open space has been known as Tapping Way open space. Council officers have discussed the new name with the Chase Meadow Residents Association which supports the proposed name of RAF Centenary Park.

- 3.6 It is not necessary for the green spaces involved in the programme to change their names. Each of these green spaces already have names that are instantly recognisable within the community through their long usage. The green space would acquire Centenary Fields status, and receive and display signage associated with this which would ensure there was no requirement for any actual name change.

Recommendations 2.4

- 3.5 If each of the green spaces is accepted as a Centenary Field, the legal process then starts and green spaces will be protected via a Deed of Dedication. Fields in Trust will draw up the draft deed and the Council then has the opportunity to make amendments. When all parties are satisfied with the deed, it will be signed and registered with the Land Registry.

Recommendation 2.5

- 3.6 Once the green spaces have been dedicated each green space will receive a Centenary Fields commemorative plaque. The requested funding will ensure that the plaques are sensitively located within each green space and interpreted specific to each of them.

4. Policy Framework

4.2 Supporting Strategies

Each strand of the FFF Strategy has several supporting strategies and the relevant ones for this proposal are explained below.

Local Plan

4.2.1 The Council has agreed a strategy statement "The future and sustainable prosperity for Warwick District" which amongst other things seeks to:

- Support the growth of the local economy; and
- Maintain and promote thriving town centres.

4.2.2 The Council acknowledges the value of green spaces to the district and that they are an essential community amenity that needs to receive the necessary awareness and promotion to enable it to attract visitors and businesses to the district.

4.3 Changes to Existing Policies - None

4.4 Impact Assessments – Not applicable. There is no equality impact assessment for this initiative as there are no negative impacts on the community.

5. Budgetary Framework

5.1 The costs associated with this initiative will be any legal costs in drafting the deed and also the cost of registering with the Land Registry. These costs can be met through existing budgets.

5.2 The cost of installing the commemorative plaque with any interpretation is estimated to be £2,000. If the proposals are supported this is to be funded from the Community Project Reserve which currently has circa £21,000 left unallocated.

6. Risks

6.1 There is the possibility that the applications are unsuccessful and the sites do not get designated however officers have met with officers of the Fields in Trust who have indicated that the sites meet the criteria required.

7. Alternative Option(s) considered

7.1 Alternative sites around the District have been considered for designation however they have been discounted on the basis that they do not have a clear link with WWI and they do not meet the selection criteria. Therefore the four sites proposed are considered the most suitable sites for designation.

8. Background

8.1 Each application will be assessed through a site visit but as a minimum, the following criteria must be met:

- The Landowner of the site must complete the application form

- Evidence of ownership, and where relevant freehold interest must be produced
- The principal use should be outdoor recreation, sport or play. This can include buildings or facilities if the use is ancillary to the outdoor space
- Sites must have public access
- Sites should be accessible in terms of location and affordability for the local community
- Sites should have local managers who are responsible for the quality of the facilities, maintenance and development, improving participation and financial and operational sustainability

8.2 The deadline for the applications is 11th November 2018 and all Deeds of Dedication must be signed by May 2019. Any sites where the deed is not signed by this time will not become Centenary Fields.
