Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The people of Warwick District Council expect and deserve the highest standards of service and behaviour from all Council staff. This Code sets out our values, rules and principles. It is not a complete list of what you can and cannot do, but its aim is to enable all employees of the Council to understand the ground rules that all must observe and the standards we expect from you as a Council employee.
- 1.2 This code is based upon the Seven Principles of Public Life (known as 'The Nolan Principles'). These principles are relevant to everyone who works in public service and are set out in full as Appendix 1 to this Code.
- 1.3 In addition, the Council has adopted five core values. These provide a framework for every action and decision that the Council takes. The five core values are:
 - Honesty and openness
 - Community focus
 - Fairness and equity
 - Environmental awareness
 - Value for money
- 1.4 Our standards are high because Council services affect the health and wellbeing of the community we serve.
- 1.5 Our work is democratically controlled and open to public scrutiny. It is often politically sensitive, and can depend on public confidence in the Council.
- 1.6 This Code applies to all Council staff. This Code does not form part of your contract of employment with the Council, and the Council reserves the right to amend it at any time.
- 1.7 Repeated or intentional breaches of the Code and the standards it expresses may result in disciplinary action, with one possible consequence being dismissal from your employment. In some cases, for example, if there is evidence of corruption or fraud, the Council may even refer the matter to the police for prosecution. We also expect all staff to operate within the law. Unlawful or criminal behaviour, even away from work, may lead to action against you by the Council and/or a referral to the police.
- 1.8 It is your responsibility to read this Code and work in accordance with it. If you are unsure about any aspect, check it with your manager or with HR. Copies of any documents referred to in this Code are available via the intranet or from your manager on request.
- 1.9 This Code applies to all staff including those professionally qualified staff that may be subject to codes of conduct or ethics imposed by their own professional bodies. In the unlikely event of a conflict arising between this Code and an external code or requirement then the officer concerned must raise the matter with their Head of Service or Monitoring Officer as soon as possible.

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

1.10 This Code forms part of the Constitution of the Council.

2. Working for the public and with other staff

2.1 We are here to serve the people who live in, work in, or visit the District. This requires a positive commitment to public service and putting our customers and the community first. Our services can have a profound effect on the quality of their lives and we have a duty to give our best at all times. They have the right to expect us to be receptive, open, honest, helpful, considerate, responsible, sensitive, and maintain confidentiality.

2.2 You must:

- (a) report any inappropriate behaviour, such as verbal or physical abuse by customers, colleagues or Councillors, to your manager
- (b) never demean, distress or offend the decency of others by, for example:
 - posting or displaying any commentary, content or images which could reasonably be seen by others as discriminatory, defamatory, offensive, pornographic, threatening, harassing, bullying, intimidating, degrading, sexually suggestive or any other inappropriate or insensitive remarks
- (c) follow the Council's Equal Opportunities Policy and must not discriminate against people you meet in the course of your work on any grounds.

You should also be aware of the Council's policy on harassment, and behave in a way that creates an inclusive, open work environment. If you become a victim of harassment in the course of your work you should report this in accordance with the agreed procedure

- (d) never take advantage of anyone, or use your position at work to further any aims that are not related to the Council or which improperly confers an advantage or disadvantage on any person
- (e) never use your work or position at work to further the aims of any political party or political activity
- (f) not use your work to further the aims of any group other than the Council whilst at work, (whether or not the group's ideas are in conflict with Council policies)
- (g) not inappropriately disclose or misuse confidential information that you know about Councillors, customers, staff, contractors, or other organisations working with the Council
- (h) disclose any matter to your manager that it is your duty to report within this Policy
- (i) respect other people, their rights and property

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- (j) ensure your conduct does not give anyone any reason to question your motives
- (k) comply with the requirements of Council policies.

2.3 You should:

- (a) meet or exceed established standards of service when dealing with people in person, by phone, letter or e-mail, whether they are customers, colleagues at work, colleagues employed outside the Council or other delegates on a training course. Always be:
 - polite, positive, responsive and considerate. Always take a positive approach in all dealings with our customers
 - as clear as possible about the decisions and actions that we take and the reasons for them
 - accountable to the public, by identifying yourself (with name badges, if issued)
- (b) avoid actions in public areas that may discredit the Council
- (c) maintain a professional approach to your job. Do not let friendships lead to a conflict between your own interests and that of the Council
- (d) treat colleagues with respect, in day-to-day working relationships, in all forms of communication.

3. Management and staff relations

3.1 Working with your manager

- 3.1.1 Your manager is there to support you and give you direction in your work. You are expected to be accountable and show loyalty to the Council and to support its managers and other officers. A climate of mutual confidence, trust and respect between managers and staff is essential to achieving work targets and providing a high quality service.
- 3.1.2 You must carry out all relevant and reasonable instructions that apply to your role.
- 3.1.3 You should work reliably and never neglect your work.

3.2 Working with your staff

- 3.2.1 For the Council, the people it employs make a difference. The Council expects managers to provide staff with clear direction, positive motivation and the opportunity to develop their skills and to jointly deliver quality services to the public.
- 3.2.2 You must:

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- (a) manage according to the principles set down in the Council's Policies (in, for example, matters of recruitment, discipline, performance management)
- (b) deal with staff fairly and consistently
- (c) provide your staff with a working environment that is free from any form of unfair discrimination, victimisation, harassment, or hostility
- (d) provide your staff with a safe and healthy working environment.

3.2.3 You should:

- (a) set standards of work, give constructive feedback and advice to staff on performance and, where necessary, on how improvements can be made to working practices to ensure standards are met
- (b) set work priorities for staff in consultation with them
- (c) support and assist staff to carry out their work properly
- (d) be aware and monitor the hours being worked by staff to ensure a consistent work life balance
- (e) develop your staff to meet the current and future needs of the individual, team and service.

4. Working practices

4.1 Health and Safety

- 4.1.1 It is a legal duty to ensure, so far as reasonably practicable, the health, safety, wellbeing and welfare of everyone in the workplace (including members of the public). Therefore, the Council aims to promote a good healthy and safe working environment amongst its staff. You have a responsibility to comply with the Council's Health and Safety Policy and to contribute to a safe working environment. Failure to do so may put you, the public or other staff at risk.
- 4.1.2 All employees have the responsibility to co-operate with supervisors and managers to achieve a healthy and safe workplace and to take reasonable care of themselves and others and, where appropriate, to use safety/protective equipment that is supplied. Whenever an employee, supervisor or manager notices a health and safety problem which they are not able to put right, they must immediately inform their line manager.
- 4.1.3 An employee of Warwick District Council must comply with the safety requirements of any contractor whilst on their premises or on Warwick District Council premises being managed by others. If any employee identifies safety standards which are below those required by Warwick District Council, that employee will first bring them to the attention of the senior person at that location and if the condition is not immediately rectified, advise their supervisor within Warwick District Council of their intention not to proceed further until rectification has taken place.

- 4.1.4 Where the employee considers there is possible danger to themselves or others, they must not proceed further until the situation, equipment, or machinery has been rendered safe.
- 4.1.5 Each member of staff should have particular regard to Sections 7 and 8 of the Health and Safety at Work (abridged) Act 1974 which places responsibilities on all employees.

4.2 Sickness Absence

- 4.2.1 You must follow the Council's Sickness Absence Policy. You must never claim sick leave when you are not sick.

4.3 Hours and attendance

- 4.3.1 Integrity in attendance at your place of work and reporting absences is critical to the success of Council services. Poor attendance and time keeping increases costs, reduces service levels and undermines the reputation of you and the Council. You should not accrue amounts of flexitime credit or time off in lieu, outside the levels in the relevant policies, unless agreeing this with your line manager first.
- 4.3.2 You must:
 - (a) comply with the time keeping requirements of your job
 - (b) be in your place of work and working when you should be
 - (c) ask your supervisor/manager if you need to take time off (for example, for a doctor's visit)
 - (d) agree with your manager any leave or time off you want in advance.

4.4 Working honestly and with integrity and impartiality

- 4.4.1 We expect you to perform your duties and use the Council's money and resources with honesty and be able to demonstrate this at all times. It is a criminal offence for you to give, receive or ask for any gift, reward or advantage for work done in your official capacity.
- 4.4.2 As a Council employee, you are expected to meet the highest standards of conduct and integrity. These high standards must equally apply, and be seen to apply, in your conduct and relationships with the public. From the way you conduct yourself there should be no reason to suspect you are seeking opportunities for private gain. You must not undertake any private commitments or activities that may reasonably be considered to bring the Council into disrepute or impair your performance or detrimentally conflict with the Council's interests.

4.4.3 Certain posts within the Council are legally designated as politically-restricted. This means that as an employee you would be debarred from any form of political activity as this would be seen to produce conflicts of interest. A list of these posts is published on the intranet together with relevant guidance. You should familiarise yourself with these. You should discuss any concerns you have with your head of service, the Deputy Chief Executive or the Monitoring Officer.

4.4.4 The relationships that the Council has with its partners, contractors, consultants, community groups, suppliers and others, must be managed so that there can be no suspicion of corruption or dishonesty with public money. The Council may require you to complete a declaration of related party transactions and this information could be disclosed in the annual Statement of Accounts.

4.4.5 You must:

- (a) not act corruptly and you must avoid any actions that could be interpreted in this way by others

Examples could include:

- asking or accepting bribes or inducements of any sort
 - seeking or taking any reward or favour for providing Council services apart from your pay
 - taking a reward from anyone who has, or might have a contract with the Council, or work in partnership with it.
- (b) report to your Head of Service, as soon as possible, any offers of money, favours, gifts or hospitality you are offered or receive (even if you refuse them). As an officer you should ensure that these approaches/offers are recorded in line with the Gifts and Hospitality procedure by recording it in the register and that you retain a copy of the necessary declaration for your own records
 - (c) return any gifts and refuse any hospitality your Head of Service says you cannot accept
 - (d) never ask for or accept a gift or tip or 'Christmas box', because:
 - you are already paid for the work you do
 - people may believe they will get better service if they tip well and worse if they do not
 - this is not the basis on which the Council delivers services.
 - (e) not become involved with the making of service users' wills or with soliciting any form of bequest or legacy from a service user

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- (f) report to your Head of Service if people you meet through work leave you things in their Will
- (g) not borrow money from, lend money to, sell or dispose of goods belonging to service users
- (h) comply with the Council's Codes of Financial Practice and Procurement Practice. If your job includes making payments or letting contracts, you should make sure you understand the Council's rules
- (i) never obtain Council property or money when you are not lawfully entitled to it (this includes subletting Council property without authority)
- (j) not act fraudulently and you must report any suspicion or evidence of fraud you may have. Fraud happens when someone gets some benefit (usually money or property) through deception. This could include examples of:
 - falsifying documents to claim pay, bonus or sick pay
 - claiming housing benefit (and similar benefits) to which you are not entitled
- (k) serve the people of the District honestly and deal honestly with the Council. This could include examples of:
 - never wilfully withhold any payments owed to the Council (like rent or Council Tax)
 - never make fraudulent claims for public money (like housing benefit or income support)
- (l) inform your line manager in writing of all work undertaken outside of your employment with the Council and declare any actual or potential conflicts of interest between your work, other colleagues and outside activities of yourself and close family.

If your employment with the Council is paid on scale point 32 (or equivalent) and above, you must have written permission from your Head of Service, or if you are a Head of Service from the CMT, prior to commencing any additional employment.

All such work should be recorded on Appendix 2 to this document and issued to your Head of Service (or the CMT) and it will be retained on your personnel file.

You must ensure that any outside work does not affect adversely your work with the Council and that it does not create a conflict of interest with the Council. Your prime loyalty should be to the Council.

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- (m) never do private work when you are claiming time for working for the Council
- (n) never abuse your position with the Council to benefit yourself, your family, your friends or any outside organisation or political party. If you live in the District you must not use your working relationships to influence matters such as planning applications or enquiries
- (o) respect Council property or equipment. Take care not to waste, lose or damage it. Do not use Council property and equipment for your own personal benefit. You should use the Council's equipment in accordance with the Council's relevant rules, codes and policies
- (p) obtain written permission for any private use of Council equipment, whether at home or in the Council's offices, as agreed by your manager for use on Council business
- (q) fill in accurately and honestly any document, form or record your managers need for work. Never destroy, damage, alter or falsify any such document or record
- (r) not be involved in the appointment or any other decision relating to the discipline, promotion, pay or conditions of another employee, or prospective employee, who is a member of your family or any person with whom you have a close association.

4.4.6 You should:

- (a) do nothing that could be seen as likely to bias your work, your decisions or your impartiality. Therefore you must be fair and impartial in dealing with all customers, competitors, suppliers, contractors, sub-contractors, partner organisations and sponsors
- (b) be careful about pursuing an association with someone who may benefit from your work for the Council. For example, it is unwise to allow yourself to become indebted to someone who may wish to benefit from your work or position in the Council
- (c) seek prior approval from your Head of Service if you are asked to give lectures, or wish to publish material, inventions or patents, that are related to the work you do with the Council

4.4.7 You must advise your Head of Service in writing if:

- (a) you have links with a group whose aims might be in conflict with Council policy, or involvement with an organisation receiving grant aid from the Council, or involvement with an organisation or pressure group which may seek to influence the Council's policies. This also applies to membership of any organisation not open to the public, with commitment of allegiance and which has secrecy about rules of membership or conduct and which furthers the interests of its members over the interests of others

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- (b) you have, or develop a relationship with someone, that might be seen to lead to a potential conflict of interest. This is only necessary where there is likely to be a conflict of interests but could include being someone's landlord, being in debt to someone, having a close personal relationship with a Councillor, client, customer, service user, employee or contractor
- (c) you are offered a job with a competitor organisation, or one we are in partnership with
- (d) you or your close relatives hold any Directorships or positions of influence in any companies linked with the Council.

4.5 Gifts and Hospitality

- 4.5.1 Whenever possible you should always decline, politely, any gifts or hospitality offered to you as a result of your work as an officer. When this is not possible, without causing offence you may accept the gift or hospitality but you must report it to your line manager.
- 4.5.2 Even if you decline or accept an offer you must record all gifts and hospitality considered to be equal to or above the value of £10 that are offered to you in the course of your duties for the Council. These include those from Councillors, contractors, other public bodies, partner organisations, consultants or others with whom you have a business relationship.
- 4.5.3 A central register is kept by the Democratic Services Manager & Deputy Monitoring Officer (and a copy should be provided to HR for inclusion on the employee's personnel file) for recording gifts/hospitality, their value, the person or organisation offering them and whether they were accepted. A form for registering these is attached as Appendix 3 to this document.
- 4.5.4 If you are not sure about how to react to such offers you should seek advice from your line manager or Head of Service.
- 4.5.5 You must:
 - (a) declare any gifts or hospitality in a timely and accurate manner
 - (b) raise any concerns about a potential gift or offer of hospitality with your manager as soon as you become aware of it.
- 4.5.6 Failure to declare any gifts or hospitality in accordance with this Code will be considered a disciplinary offence and one of the sanctions that could be imposed is dismissal.

4.6 Working with sensitive information

- 4.6.1 We expect you to use sensitive information properly and to have due respect for confidentiality. Information gathered while working for the Council, whether held electronically or by other means, should not be used for commercial or personal gain, someone else's gain or otherwise misused. Due regard needs to be given to the Council's Information Security Policy.

4.6.2 You must:

- (a) not knowingly disclose information given to you in confidence by anyone, or disclose information acquired that you believe is of a confidential nature, including commercially sensitive information, without the consent of the person authorised to give it, or unless you are required by law to do so
- (b) not knowingly prevent another person from gaining access to information to which that person is entitled by law
- (c) know what information the Council treats as confidential and commercially sensitive information. (If in doubt, check with your manager.)
- (d) know who is entitled to have access to what information
- (e) be responsible and professional in using and allowing authorised users access to personal information on clients, customers, staff and others
- (f) use personal information in line with the Data Protection Act 2018 and General Data Protection Regulation
- (g) report to your manager anyone, whether another member of staff, a member of the public or a Councillor, who attempts to put pressure on you for access to information to which they are not entitled.

4.7 Working within the law and the Council's Constitution

4.7.1 The Council expects you to work within the law. Council powers are set by a framework of laws and regulations. In order for its decisions and actions to be held to be reasonable in law, the Council must carry out its business in a way that is rational, proper and fair. Unlawful or criminal behaviour at, or even away from, work may result in a loss of trust and confidence in the employee or the Council.

4.7.2 You must inform your Head of Service in writing immediately if you are charged with or convicted of a criminal offence or receive a caution whilst you are employed by the Council (this includes events having taken place outside of your working hours). The Council would then need to consider whether this charge, conviction or caution could reasonably be considered to bring the Council into disrepute or makes you unsuitable to carry out your job. Whilst not an exhaustive list, examples would include:

- submitting false or fraudulent claims to the Council or other public bodies (for example, income support, housing or other benefit claims)

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- breaching copyright on computer software or published documents
- offences against children and/or sexual or violent in nature that may render you unfit to work with children or vulnerable adults
- crimes of dishonesty that render you unfit to hold a position of trust.

4.7.3 The Constitution sets out how the Council operates, how decisions are made and the procedures that are followed to ensure that these are efficient, transparent and accountable to local people. Whilst you should have a general awareness of the Constitution the areas that you are expected to have a good knowledge of are the Code of Financial Practice and Code of Procurement Practice. The Code of Financial Practice provides the framework for managing the Authority's financial affairs and applies to every member and officer of the Authority and anyone acting on its behalf.

4.7.4 Breaches of financial rules are taken seriously and the Head of Finance is responsible for reporting breaches of these rules to the Council and/or Executive.

4.7.5 You must:

- (a) have an understanding of the Code of Financial Practice that is appropriate to your job
- (b) complete any financial work in accordance with the Code of Financial Practice
- (c) inform your Head of Service, the Head of Finance or the head of Internal Audit immediately if you become aware of any breach of the Code of Financial Practice or if you suspect any breach may have occurred.

4.8 Working with Councillors

4.8.1 Councillors expect staff to contribute to proper and effective working relationships with them. You serve the Council as a whole – all Councillors – and not just those of any particular group. You must ensure that the rights of Councillors are respected. You must maintain political neutrality at work and be seen to be impartial.

4.8.2 Close personal familiarity between individual Councillors and officers can damage this relationship and give rise to the appearance of improper conduct. Generally, a close relationship between a Councillor and member of staff is incompatible with the high standards of public life that the Council is promoting. If such a relationship exists or begins to develop you must discuss this as soon as practicably possible with your Head of Service.

4.8.3 You must:

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- (a) serve all Councillors impartially and professionally, not just those of a particular political group
- (b) do nothing to disrupt Council meetings
- (c) dress and behave with appropriate formality at official events and meetings
- (d) deal with Councillors' enquiries efficiently and within the agreed timescales
- (e) disclose to your Head of Service any family, business or close personal relationships with Councillors
- (f) report to your Head of Service any time a Councillor asks or pressures you to deal with a matter outside of Council procedure or policy
- (g) not seek to influence Councillors prior to any appointment
- (h) not canvass Councillors on individual employment-related matters for which there are Council approved procedures (for example, in matters of recruitment, discipline, unsatisfactory performance, terms and conditions of employment)
- (i) report any claims or allegations about other staff to an appropriate manager, and not to Councillors
- (j) not take advantage of your status as a Council employee to gain privileged access to a Councillor to advance your interests or views as a resident of the District. This is especially important in matters such as planning applications and enquiries.

4.8.4 You should:

- (a) not permit your own personal or political opinions or preferences to interfere with your work or working relationships with Councillors
- (b) report to your Head of Service if you have concerns that a Councillor's conduct or treatment of staff is inconsistent with Council policies.

4.8.5 Extensive guidance to Members and officers of the Council in their relations with one another is set out in the Member/Officer Protocol, and the Employee Code of Conduct should be read in conjunction with that protocol.

4.9 Managing contact with the Media

4.9.1 The Council expects staff to promote the policies and reputation of the Council and act as ambassadors. Contact with the press and media is conducted through the Media Team. This protects individual employees from unwanted media attention and allows the Council to manage its reputation properly. Relations with the media require specific skills and expertise and staff should not discuss Council business with the media without their Head of Service's prior permission, unless you act as spokesperson for one of the Council's recognised trade unions in pursuit of legitimate industrial relations activities.

4.9.2 Staff must comply with the Council's Media Policy.

4.9.3 You must:

- (a) get permission from your Head of Service to speak, write, or give interviews to the media whilst representing the Council
- (b) never bring the Council's name into disrepute in any other way through the press and other media
- (c) never bring the Council into disrepute by publicising material that is confidential, or against the interests of the Council, or its employees
- (d) not leak information to the press and media except within the exclusions provided strictly by the Council's Whistleblowing Policy
- (e) refer enquiries from the media to the Media Team in the first instance.

4.10 Reporting Improper Conduct – The Confidential Reporting Policy

4.10.1 We are committed to preventing any malpractice, fraud, corruption and any other actions that are illegal or not in the best interests of the Council's customers. The people of the District expect and deserve the highest standards of public service and we rely on all staff to play their part. You have a duty to report any reasonable suspicions of malpractice, fraud, poor practice or illegal activities. We have a duty to act on any information from whistle-blowers and to protect you if you speak out. The Council's whistleblowing policy sets out the reporting process.

4.10.2 All managers have an absolute duty to act on employees' legitimate concerns. Failure to do so will be a disciplinary matter. Victimising staff that raise legitimate concerns or deterring someone from speaking out about fraud or abuse will be treated as a serious disciplinary offence. The detail of this is included with the Council's Disciplinary Policy.

4.10.3 The Council will:

- (a) take you seriously when you come forward and act in a fair and reasonable manner to tackle any impropriety that is found to have taken place
- (b) do everything reasonably possible to support you and protect you from reprisals
- (c) do everything reasonably possible to protect your confidentiality

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- (d) tell you what action is being taken.

4.10.4 You must:

- (a) know what practices are acceptable and which are not (as set out in this Code and the Whistleblowing Policy) – check with your manager if you are unsure
- (b) report immediately any irregularities, malpractice, illegal or fraudulent activity, or any abuse or suspected abuse, either of staff or customers
- (c) immediately report any matters that you feel have not been properly dealt with
- (d) provide any evidence or relevant information you have
- (e) report any concerns about corrupt or improper conduct by others to your line manager, in the first instance. If you do not feel able to approach your line manager, you should report your concerns to your Head of Service or the Chief Executive, the Council's Monitoring Officer or the Audit and Risk Manager.

You also have the right to raise concerns about financial malpractice with the Council's External Auditors as set out in the Whistleblowing Procedure

- (f) never abuse this process by raising allegations that are known to you to be unfounded. This will be considered as a disciplinary matter.

4.11 Gross misconduct

4.11.1 The Council will apply this Code of Conduct consistently and fairly. It is a public document and is distributed to all staff. Any breaches of the Code may result in disciplinary action which could result in your dismissal.

4.11.2 Some breaches (known as gross misconduct) could potentially be deemed serious enough to justify the Council in dismissing staff for a first offence, and without notice. The examples of gross misconduct below are given so that you can judge what could potentially compel the Council to dismiss you. This is not a complete list, since each case will be decided on their individual facts and circumstances.

4.11.3 For illustrative purposes only, these are examples where the Council will consider dismissing you for gross misconduct:

- (a) conceal any matter that you should report in line with Council Policies
- (b) disclose any matter that you should keep confidential
- (c) succeed in getting a job by lies or deception

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

- (d) commit any acts of discrimination, harassment or victimisation
- (e) threaten, fight with, or assault anyone
- (f) steal or take or damage things that belong to someone else and/or the Council
- (g) seriously demean or offend the decency of others
- (h) act in a way that resulted, or would have resulted, in injury or danger to yourself or others
- (i) undertaking private work when you are claiming time for working for the Council
- (j) breach financial regulations or standing orders
- (k) refuse to make or abide by an agreement to repay any debt you owe to the Council
- (l) break a law at/or away from work which makes you unsuitable for the work you do or would damage, or could potentially damage, public confidence in the Council
- (m) obtain Council services, property or money by fraud (for example, falsify timesheets)
- (n) submit false or fraudulent claims to the Council or other bodies (for example, income support claims, housing or other benefit claims)
- (o) ask for or accept bribes, gifts or favours
- (p) disrupt Council meetings
- (q) discriminate against another person, in conflict with the Council's Equal Opportunities Policy.

NB: This list is not exhaustive

4.12 Working with External Organisations

4.12.1 Members of staff become involved in external organisations from time to time. This can result from being appointed by the Council as its representative or by other means. Examples of such organisations could be working groups such as the West Midlands Information Governance Forum or the local crime and disorder reduction partnership.

4.12.2 Staff must be careful about any conflict of interest that may result. These can often occur where an officer's role overlaps with the interests of another organisation.

Warwick District Council Employee Code of Conduct

Particular care is needed in relation to executive positions in external organisations such as trusteeships, or various offices such as Chairman, Treasurer or Secretary.

- 4.12.3 The Council's protocol on partnerships and other external organisations provides advice for the conduct of members and officers when representing the Council on external partnerships and other organisations.
- 4.12.4 The Council's policy is for such executive appointments to be avoided where there is any possibility of a conflict of interest. Staff must take advice from their Head of Service if they are in doubt.
- 4.12.5 All appointments must be approved by your Head of Service and who will ensure they are recorded centrally with the Democratic Services Manager.
- 4.13 All employees must follow the Council agreed guidelines for volunteering to work on a recognised WDC project/event including elections and referendums.

5. Guidance notes on the declaration of pecuniary and personal interests

5.1 Introduction

- 5.1.1 The Code of Conduct covers all employees working under a contract of employment within Local Government, including session workers and casuals. Some of the issues covered by the Code may affect senior, managerial and professional employees more than it may others.

5.2 Advice

- 5.2.1 You should not maintain outside interests that are to the detriment of your work with the Council or that conflict with your employment/position within the Council.
- 5.2.2 If you are in doubt as to whether or not you have specific outside interests which should be declared, you should contact your manager in the first instance or your Head of Service. If you do not wish to discuss these issues with your manager, you should contact HR.
- 5.2.3 Shareholders (Part B, Question 1.2 of the declaration form) – you are only required to declare shareholdings that could be directly related to your work, for example, shareholdings that provide a measure of control of a company which has dealings with the Council, or shareholdings, the value of which might be affected by Council work in which you are involved.
- 5.2.4 Grant Aid/Professional Bodies (Part B, Question 1.3 of the declaration form) – where you are involved either yourself in the running of a group or organisation as a Committee member, or involved in the decision-making process, then you should declare this only if it has a clear impact on your area of work and conflicts with the Council's interests. If you are in any doubt about this you must discuss it with your manager.

- 5.2.5 Membership of Clubs, Associations and Societies (Part B, Question 2 of the declaration form) – this includes special interest societies, charities, groups that are grant-aided by the Council and pressure groups. This includes declaring any membership of organisations not open to the public, with commitment of allegiance, which has secrecy about rules of membership or conduct and which furthers the interests of its members over the interests of others. These need only be declared where there may be a direct impact on your area of work with the Council.
- 5.2.6 Professional Bodies (Part B, Question 3 of the declaration form) – if you are asked to do work and intend to use information relating to the Council for a group or organisation of which you are a member, you should declare your membership.
- 5.2.7 Housing Association/Tenants' Residents' Association (Part B, Question 5 of the declaration form) – if you are a Committee member of a Council Tenants' or Residents' Association, you should declare your membership where there may be direct impact on your area of work.
- 5.2.8 Trusts (Part B, Question 6.2 of the declaration form) – if you are a member of a charitable Trust or have any other interest you only need to declare it where there may be a direct impact on your area of work.
- 5.2.9 Recruitment of Relatives (Part V, Question 7 of the declaration form) – the term "associated with" includes spouse, partner, close family members, e.g. mother, father, sister, brother and other persons with whom you have a close personal relationship.
- 5.2.10 You must declare any contract that you or your spouse/partner – or the both of you – have with regard to the provision of a service or the supply of goods/assets to the Council, such as the lease of land or property to the Council.

5.3 Completing the Declaration Form

- 5.3.1 Please read the Code of Conduct carefully and consider whether you have any external interests that may need to be declared. If you are in any doubt about whether you should declare a specific matter, it is recommended that you declare it.

5.3.2 New Employees and those accepting new Contracts of Employment:

All newly appointed staff and existing staff accepting new contracts of employment will be required to complete a declaration of interests form as a condition of appointment.

This requirement will be publicised in the recruitment documentation sent to applicants. All staff will be required to declare interests before taking up their posts.

5.4 Completed Declaration Forms

- 5.4.1 Once you have completed the Code of Conduct declaration form, you should forward it to your Head of Service for review and approval. It should then be forwarded to HR who will retain it on your personnel file and also store it on a central register that is kept by the Democratic Services Manager and Deputy Monitoring Officer. The information you give is strictly confidential.

5.5 Failure to declare/follow the Code

- 5.5.1 If you fail to return a declaration form, it will not, in itself, constitute a disciplinary offence. However, should a relationship or other issue emerge which was relevant and this has not been declared as set out in this Code, non-declaration might be taken as evidence of misconduct or gross misconduct which could potentially result in disciplinary action being taken against you.
- 5.5.2 Failure to follow the Code in any aspect may also be raised in disciplinary action being taken against you for a breach of the Council's rules or procedures.
- 5.5.3 The above instances may constitute a criminal offence under Section 117 of the Local Government Act 1972. Criminal sanctions may apply where an abuse of position has occurred as a result of a Council contract or where an employee or their relatives have gained pecuniary advantages.
- 5.5.4 In the case of someone wishing to complain about the conduct of an employee they should address their complaint to the relevant line manager or head of service and it would be for that Head of Service to determine, following an investigation in line with the Council's complaints policy, whether the employee contravened the Code.

5.6 Inspection of Information

- 5.6.1 Your declaration form will not normally be open for inspection to anyone, other than by your line manager, HR, or an officer undertaking an investigation into your conduct in line with agreed policies.
- 5.6.2 By completing a declaration form, this will not in itself represent any form of sanction or approval by the Council of the contents of the declaration.

5.7 Amending Declaration Forms

- 5.7.1 If your circumstances alter and you wish to amend or review a declaration form, or view your personnel file, please contact HR.

5.8 Confidentiality

- 5.8.1 The information given on the declaration form is given in the strictest confidence and must not be divulged inappropriately and inappropriate divulgence may result in disciplinary action being taken.

Committee for Standards in Public Life:

The Seven Principles of Public Life (Revised January 2013)

Principle	Revised description
Preamble	The principles of public life apply to anyone who works as a public office-holder. This includes all those who are elected or appointed to public office, nationally and locally, and all people appointed to work in the civil service, local government, the police, courts and probation services, NDPBs, and in the health, education, social and care services. All public office-holders are both servants of the public and stewards of public resources. The principles also have application to all those in other sectors delivering public services.
Selflessness	Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.
Integrity	Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.
Objectivity	Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.
Accountability	Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.
Openness	Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.
Honesty	Holders of public office should be truthful.
Leadership	Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.
