1. RECOMMENDATION(S)

1.1 That Executive approves:-

1. That the Council undertakes a public consultation on the key issues that will inform the Core Strategy in line with the approach set out in this report,
2. That the questionnaire attached as appendix A to this report forms the basis of the questions that the Council will ask as part of this consultation,
3. That an "Issues Paper" be prepared to explain the key issues, and that the Head of Planning & Engineering, in conjunction with the Development Portfolio holder, are delegated to approve the text of this report (and any minor commensurate amendments to the questionnaire as may be required) prior to consultation.

2. REASON(S) FOR THE RECOMMENDATION(S)

- 2.1 The Council is required to produce a Core Strategy as part of its Local Development Framework. In its Local Development Scheme, it has undertaken to consult on "issues and options" for the Core Strategy by the spring of 2008. This "issues" consultation is the first stage in this process.
- 2.2 More information on the background to the report is contained in sections 6 - 8 below.

3. ALTERNATIVE OPTION(S) CONSIDERED

- 3.1 It would be possible for the Council to delay consulting on "issues" until the "options" have also been prepared and then undertake a single consultation in the spring of 2008. It is my view, however, that there are clear benefits in separating the two consultations and these are set out in section 6 below.

4. BUDGETARY FRAMEWORK

- 4.1 It is anticipated that this consultation can be met within existing budgets.

5. POLICY FRAMEWORK

- 5.1 The Core Strategy is being prepared alongside the Community Strategy and the two documents were launched together at an event in June 2007. The Core Strategy is expected to have regard to the land-use and spatial implications of the Community Strategy.

6. BACKGROUND

- 6.1 On 21st September 2007, the Council adopted the Warwick District Local Plan. This provides a planning policy framework for the period up to 2011.
- 6.2 The Council is now required to commence work on the series of documents that will, eventually, replace the Local Plan under the requirements of the 2004 Planning & Compulsory Purchase Act. These will be known as "Development Plan Documents" (DPDs) and will form part of the Council's Local Development Framework (LDF). As councillors will be aware, work on the LDF is already underway, and several documents have already been prepared. These are as follows:-

Local Development Scheme	This is a project plan which sets out the timetable for the council to prepare the documents in its LDF.
Statement of Community Involvement (SCI)	This sets out how the Council will consult with the public and stakeholders as it prepares the LDF and as it determines planning applications. The SCI was adopted by the Council in July 2007.
Annual Monitoring Report (AMR)	This is prepared annually and reported to members. The 2007 AMR will be reported to the December Executive.

Supplementary Planning Documents (SPDs)

• Managing Housing Supply	This puts in place the Council's current approach to determining planning applications for housing in urban areas. It was approved for development control purposes in September 2005.
• Vehicle Parking Standards	This sets out parking standards for new development in the district. There is a separate item on this SPD in this agenda.
• Mixed Communities and Affordable Housing	This sets out the Council's approach toward achieving more affordable housing in the district. A public consultation on this document has recently concluded.

6.3 With the Local Plan adopted, the Council is now required to commence work on its Core Strategy. The Core Strategy sets the broad framework of planning policies that will shape development in the district beyond the period of the Local Plan. The timeframe for the Core Strategy has been set to 2026. This date is important in that it is the same as the Regional Spatial Strategy (RSS) which, as members will be aware, is currently under review. The policies in the RSS Review, when they are finally approved by the Secretary of State, will provide a clear framework to 2026 against which Warwick District will need to plan for the future and allocate land for development.

6.4 As with the Local Plan, the process of preparing the Core Strategy is an involved one and includes several periods of public consultation. The Council, in its Local Development Scheme, has set a timetable for achieving each of its key stages. This is as follows:-

Stage	Dates
Early stakeholder and community engagement and gathering of evidence	January – December 2007
Issues & Options: public consultation	Spring 2008

Stage	Dates
Preferred options: public consultation	Autumn 2008
Submission of Core Strategy to Secretary of State	December 2008
Public examination	October 2009
Adoption of Core Strategy	June 2010

6.5 As can be seen, we hope to have completed public consultation on both the issues facing the district in its Core Strategy and spatial options that may be open to us by the spring of next year. The Government does not set down a prescribed approach by which we should consult on “issues and options”; there is some discretion left to each local authority. The way that I am proposing to undertake this public consultation is to split the consultation in two. We would consult on the “issues” now, and when we have had an opportunity to collate all of the views, we would prepare a series of “options” upon which we would do a separate public consultation in the spring. There are two advantages of this approach.

- Firstly, it would allow us to gain an understanding of local people’s perceptions of the key issues facing the district before we develop a series of options in response. This will allow us to respond to local people’s concerns as we put forward options for consultation.
- Secondly, by leaving the “options” consultation until the spring, this would be after the West Midlands Regional Assembly has published its “preferred options” report on the review of the Regional Spatial Strategy. The Council would therefore have a clearer view as to the possibly level of new growth that is being proposed for Warwick District over the period to 2026, and this will be able to inform any options we develop. (I would wish to make it clear, however, that this would not imply that the Council is therefore accepting the figures in the emerging RSS. There is still due process to be followed before the RSS is finally issued, and the Council will have every opportunity to object to this if it wishes.)

7. WHAT ARE THE KEY ISSUES AFFECTING WARWICK DISTRICT?

7.1 One of the main purposes of the “key issues” consultation is to help the council understand what issues are currently facing Warwick District that the Core Strategy will need to address. It is important that as we prepare the Issues Report and consult on this that the council is not seen to be pre-judging this. Nevertheless, the following are some of the key issues that will need to be fully considered as the Core Strategy is taken forward.

Maintaining a vibrant and prosperous district

- As members will be aware, there is currently a debate at regional level about the level of new development that each authority within the West Midlands will need to provide. This figure will ultimately be set for us when the “Phase 2

Revision” of the Regional Spatial Strategy (RSS) is issued by the Secretary of State (anticipated in 2009). This will include a figure for the amount of new employment land that will be needed to meet the needs of Warwick District. There may be a significant requirement for more employment land, some of which will need to be on green field sites

- The Council has done much to support our town centres, and more will need to be done in the future to protect these and ensure that they meet the needs to the district’s population.
- The Council has worked with partners to support regeneration within areas of the district and there is more work to be done here.
- A prosperous rural economy and vibrant rural communities are an important part of the overall prosperity and wellbeing of the district.

Protecting the District’s key assets

- The District’s environment is a valuable asset, whether this be our landscapes and townscapes, green spaces and the natural environment or the historic environment. The Core Strategy will need to ensure that as growth takes place, these assets are maintained and, where possible, enhanced.

Securing a more sustainable district

- The impact of climate change is an important issue which all local authorities need to address. The newly adopted Local Plan has given us a good basis for doing this, but as technology and government policy changes, there will be more that can be done to tackle this problem. Since more growth will inevitably lead to a larger carbon footprint for the district, we will need to consider how opportunities to limit this can be taken. This will include increasing reliance on renewable energy, reducing reliance on the private car and promoting public transport.

Meeting the Needs of Warwick District

- The “Phase 2 Revisions” of the RSS will also include a figure for the number of new houses that will need to be built in the district up to 2026. The draft policies of the RSS Phase 2 Revision propose that Warwick District accommodates a further 10,800 new homes between 2006 and 2026. The Core Strategy will need to begin to consider where this housing is to be located. How much will be on urban brown field sites? How much should be directed to green field sites? Within this total amount of new housing, there will need to be a significant proportion of affordable housing to meeting the large and growing need within the district. The Core Strategy will need to provide a framework for helping us deliver more affordable housing.
- The Core Strategy will also need to consider how issues such as planning can help address issues such as poverty and social exclusion, health and access to local services.

8. WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

- 8.1 The Issues Report, on which consultation will take place, will take the form of a questionnaire survey, supported by an Issues paper. Attached as appendix A to this report is the (a) the contents page which sets out the structure of the Issues paper, and (b) a questionnaire which also mirrors that structure. What I would ask is that Executive approves the questionnaire, and the structure of the Issues Paper. I would also ask that Executive delegates authority to me, in conjunction with the Councillor John Hammon as Development Portfolio Holder, to approve the detailed wording of the Issues Report prior to publication. The Issues Paper will not set out the Council's formal position on any matter relating to the Core Strategy (other than proposing a series of objectives which are also set out in question 2 in the questionnaire) but will simply seek to set the existing known context within the district. This will assist people to consider the questions in the questionnaire.

- 8.2 You will also see in question 1 (in appendix A) a reference to the emerging vision statement from the Community Strategy. At the time of writing this report, the wording of this was not available, however is being prepared as part of the new Community Strategy which is being prepared in parallel with the Core Strategy. A draft vision statement will be available before any public consultation commenced, and it would be helpful to consult on this alongside the other issues raised by the questionnaire.
- 8.3 I would also add that I have met with the Development Plans Working Party to discuss both (a) the overall approach to consulting on "Issues & Options", and (b) the wording of the questionnaire. The Working Party has made a number of suggestions to improve the clarity of the document and these have been incorporated in the version before you today.
- 8.4 It is anticipated that the public consultation would be able to take place before the Christmas period and be concluded before we look to bring the options report before Executive in the spring. The consultation would be for six weeks and we would follow the Council's set procedures for this as set out in our adopted Statement of Community Involvement. In addition, we would look to use our extensive range of contacts to ensure that there is widespread engagement with the local community and stakeholders.

11. A major factor influencing the amount of land required for new development is the density of new housing. Should the density of new housing development be (choose one):-

- a) High Density to make best use of the land (typically flats/apartments over 50 dwellings per hectare)
- b) Medium density to allow houses to have some space around them (minimum density of 30 dwellings per hectare)
- c) Low Density to give large amounts of space around dwellings (below 30 dwellings per hectare)
- d) A density that recognises and reflects the local character at whatever density that happens to be

Protecting and enhancing green spaces and the natural environment

12. How important is it that we should protect the district's:-

Natural habitats and the natural environment?
 Formal and informal parks and open spaces
 Children's play areas
 Sports pitches
 Allotments

Promoting high quality design

15. The Council wishes to ensure that new development meets a high standard of design. How would you rate the following in achieving this (please tick the appropriate box for each).

- Ensure new development complements and reflects the existing settlement
- Take a lead from the natural features of the surrounding area
- Retain or improve the character of the streets, squares and spaces
- Improve and incorporate existing features into the development
- Take into account the surrounding buildings in terms of scale, form, height and massing
- Use appropriate local materials according to location and surroundings
- Encourage innovative design
- Copying local building styles
- Creating a modern image with new buildings

Very Important	Important	Neither important nor unimportant	Not important	No opinion

Do you have you any other ideas about how the how we should encourage locally distinctive high quality design?

Addressing the problems of pollution

16. Does the Council need, as a priority, to tackle any of the following forms of pollution?

Air pollution	<input type="checkbox"/>
Noise pollution	<input type="checkbox"/>
Soil pollution	<input type="checkbox"/>
Water pollution	<input type="checkbox"/>

Do you have any specific ideas for how we may seek to do this?

Improving the health and well-being of residents

23. Are there adequate health and community facilities to serve the district?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If NO, what would you like to see provided and where?

-----

24. Is there a need for more leisure facilities in the District?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If YES, what and where should they be?

26. Are there sections of the community that you believe have outstanding needs that should be met (e.g. elderly, young or disabled people, ethnic minority groups, etc)?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If YES, which group of people and what are the issues?

Understanding the key issues affecting our district

27. The above questions explore some key issues arising from the objectives set out by the Council for discussion. Do you think that we have successfully identified all the key issues?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If NO, what key issues do you consider we have missed? What evidence do you have to support this view?

Thank you for taking the time to complete the questionnaire. I’m sorry but we are not able to acknowledge receipt of questionnaires. Please return the questionnaire to us using the Freepost envelope provided or direct to Riverside House by 2007. If you have any questions or require further copies of the questionnaire, please contact Lorna Coldicott, Senior Planner tel. no. 01926 456505 or email ldf@warwickdc.gov.uk

Please note that although the Core Strategy will draw out general points from the questionnaires and not attribute them to groups or individuals, they are public documents and available for public scrutiny. The information will be held on a database and used to assist with the preparation of all LDF documents and with the consideration of planning applications, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.
